That's Not in My Job Description ...and other realities of a tight labour market

November 16th & 17th Sheraton Hotel, St. John's

Ada Shave
Senior Consultant
Knightsbridge Robertson Surette

Ada has been involved in the area of people development for over 20 years. Helping people reach their potential is her passion. As a young entrepreneur, Ada was the co-founder of the first full-time private counselling firm in Newfoundland and Labrador, growing the business from a small company to the largest of its kind in the Province. After fourteen years in the counselling field, Ada founded a thriving consulting business, working with such organizations as Canada Post, Xerox Canada, Rogers AT&T, the RCMP, and Aliant.

Along with her entrepreneurial spirit, Ada has a strong love of teaching and has taught at the undergraduate and graduate levels at Memorial University of Newfoundland. She presently teaches management development courses at Memorial University's Gardiner Centre.

As a Senior Consultant in our St. John's office, Ada is responsible for the business development and delivery of services in the Career Transition, Assessment, Coaching and Human Resources Consulting practices throughout the firm.

Ada holds a Bachelor of Arts (Education) and a Master of Education (Educational Psychology) from Memorial University of Newfoundland. Ada is certified in the practice of Reality Therapy, Mediation, and Critical Incident Stress Debriefing. She is an MBTI practitioner, and certified in the LEA 360, The Birkman Method, ASSESS, Predictive Index and the Prevue Assessment.
